Schedule of Activities BWI Rail Station Dedication

Thursday, October 23, 1980

TOUR TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION

Beginning at 1:45 p.m., MTA buses will be loading in the public parking lot for a tour of BWI Airport's new $70 million Passenger Terminal Building and Baltimore's Inner Harbor area.

The tour will end at 4:00 p.m., near the World Trade Center, East Pratt Street.

From that point, bus transportation to Baltimore's Pennsylvania Station (for those returning home by either North or South-bound train), and to BWI Airport (for those who arrived at the BWI Rail Station dedication by automobile), will be provided until approximately 4:30 p.m.

Amtrak and the Maryland Department of Transportation would like to thank the following for their participation in the dedication of America's first intercity air-rail-ground transportation connection:
