Metrophone*

In an effort to provide our customers with a fast, efficient reservation system, Amtrak has added special telephone numbers to handle the ever-increasing number of Metroliner reservation requests received every day.

With our new numbers the traveler in a hurry or the business person on a tight schedule will be able to make Metroliner reservations in record time.

It's Amtrak's way of making traveling easier. And with the Metroliner's speedy downtown-to-downtown service between New York and Washington, passengers can travel in style and comfort without highway or airport transfer hassles.

Now that you've got our number, give us a call and get on board Amtrak's Metroliner!
