It's a Great Package Deal

You can count on Amtrak when people are counting on you.

Amtrak Package Express. Many of our customers tell us we're the most reliable, most efficient service in the California Corridor. Amazingly, our service costs less, too. As illustrated in our chart below, you could pay from $40.00 to $90.00 for door-to-door overnight delivery of a 50-lb. package from Los Angeles to San Francisco. Via Amtrak, the same service costs you $21.60 — about half as much.

Amtrak Package Express costs less

Compare and judge for yourself. The following cost comparison is based on door-to-door overnight service from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

| LOS ANGELES TO SAN FRANCISCO | 25-lb. | 50-lb. | 75-lb. |
|------------------------------|--------|--------|--------|
| AMTRAK | 19.10 | 21.60 | 30.50 |

Service tailored to meet your needs

Guaranteed Overnight Service

With this service, any package picked up by Amtrak's agent, or dropped off at one of the designated overnight Package Express stations, will be delivered the next business day—guaranteed.

Guaranteed Next-Train-Out Service

When overnight isn't fast enough, Amtrak offers you even faster next-train-out service on a station-to-station basis. Just call the nearest Amtrak train station to find out when the next train is leaving for your destination. Provided that baggage/express car service is available, Amtrak guarantees that your shipment is placed on that train.

Regular Service

If you are located outside the California Corridor ... or if you are located within the Corridor but are shipping beyond, Amtrak has express service that will move your packages from door to station, station to door, or station to station in the most economical and expeditious way possible. We have more than 200 Amtrak Package Express Stations coast-to-coast, all conveniently located and ready to serve your package express needs.
