FLORIDA TRAINS

Silver Meteor

The keynote here is enjoyment and relaxation, with a beautiful daylight trip through central Florida's orange groves, and its scenic lakes and rivers. Some of the Florida high spots served by the Silver Meteor are Winter Haven (close to Walt Disney World), West Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood and Miami.

Your trip is made even more pleasant with on-board features such as color T.V. and movies.

You may reserve a spacious reclining seat or travel in a private room at economical prices. Enjoy tempting snacks and refreshments in the Recreation Car or delicious meals at moderate prices in the dining car, and courteous and attentive service all the way.

Silver Star

Late morning departure from New York and northern cities allows for early morning arrival in Orlando and a full day at Walt Disney World with its wonderland of thrills, fantasy, and beauty. Most other Florida vacation spots are reached by the Silver Star, including Tampa, St. Petersburg, Miami, and De Land, with easy highway access to Daytona Beach, Delray and Deerfield beaches and, of course, Fort Lauderdale and Hollywood.

Choose fully reclining reserved coach seats or larger private room with luxurious sleeping accommodations. The diner offers excellent food at attractive "down-to-earth" prices, and the lounge car features snacks, sandwiches and beverages even the most modest budget can afford.

- A. Service is always courteous and friendly.
- B. "Anything we can do to make you more comfortable?"
- C. No wonder you arrive refreshed.
- D. You can't beat an Amtrak meal at an Amtrak price.
- E. Enjoy the congenial Amtrak atmosphere.

Vacationer

A new winter-season service designed especially for family travel. Featuring convenient arrivals and departures at Winter Haven (close to Walt Disney World) and an early evening departure from New York and other cities of the Northeast for West Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Miami.

Floridian

Offers direct service from Chicago to Miami and St. Petersburg. The Floridian offers economical reserved coach seats and luxurious first-class service. From Indianapolis, Louisville, and Nashville, there is direct service to all major Florida destinations.

Carolina or Georgia Bound?

Amtrak's Florida services provide convenient direct service to Raleigh, Columbia, Charleston and Savannah. In addition, such holiday destinations as Hilton Head Island, N.C., Pinehurst, N.C., Brunswick and Sea Island, Ga. are readily accessible from Amtrak stations. In Florida, this includes Silver Springs, Cypress Gardens, Bradenton, Sarasota, Venice, and, of course, Walt Disney World.

Free Wheels for a Week

When you purchase three or more full-fare round-trip tickets to Miami from New York or Chicago, ask for the Amtrak Free Wheels plan. You can pick up your car at no mileage charge, paying only for gas, and return it before leaving for home in any of seven Amtrak Free Wheels cities in Florida: Orlando, Tampa, St. Petersburg, West Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, or Miami. Call your Amtrak travel agent for all the details.

The Champion

The Champion is the West Coast special which offers you leisurely hours to take in the view from the panoramic windows.

Enjoy fully reclining reserved seats or private accommodations between New York and Tampa/St. Petersburg at a surprisingly low price. Train stops at Jacksonville, De Land, Sanford, Winter Park, Orlando (gateway to the spectacular new Walt Disney World), Lakeland and Tampa/St. Petersburg.

- A. No hustle, no bustle — and breakfast's waiting.
- B. Deep-cushioned seating and lots of leg room.
- C. A toast to Amtrak?
- D. Children love going the Amtrak way.

EASTERN CORRIDOR

A. The Turbotrain is on its speedy way. B. Metroliner's Metroclub car. C. Father-and-son day, the Amtrak way.

Eastern Corridor

Amtrak provides a variety of schedules, night and day, between major cities of the Northeast industrial corridor between Boston and Washington, D.C. Included in our modern fleet of conventional trains is the famous Metroliner, one of the world's fastest trains, between New York and Washington, D.C., and the jet-powered Turbotrain connecting New York and Boston. All Amtrak trains offer economical coach service between these cities and other key corridor points between Boston and Washington.

Merchants Limited

This famous early evening train provides a swift and comfortable journey between Boston and Washington.

The coaches and parlor car are completely refurbished with comfortable, deep-cushioned seats and wide panoramic windows to give you the best possible view of the passing scene. Dining service or light meals and beverage service are available for your enjoyment.

Night Owl

The ideal solution for businessmen commuting between the Boston/Providence and Baltimore/Washington areas. You get a good night's sleep, do a full day's work — and save the price of a hotel room.

You have time for a leisurely dinner before boarding the train. Early morning arrival allows for a full day's schedule at either destination. Just stretch out and relax in your economical deep-cushioned coach seat or ask for sleeping accommodations with private toilet facilities if you prefer.

Metroliner

The new, convenient, and speedy way to travel between New York and Washington, D.C. — your choice of 14 trains a day, on midtown to midtown schedules as fast as 2 hours and 55 minutes in either direction. Metroliner service also operates between New Haven, Bridgeport, Stamford, Rye and Washington, D.C. Luxurious carpeted coaches, snack bars, and in Metroclub, meal service at your seat, all contributing to a smoother ride and a swift arrival at your destination city. Here is the train of the future, available to you now. And at surprisingly low fares which save you the price of transportation to and from arrival points outside cities.

Turbotrain

This streamlined, jet powered train is the smooth, modern way to travel between New York and Boston — from midtown to midtown in less than four hours. Dome coaches afford a splendid view as you glide along, and you can partake of the excellently prepared and moderately priced meals, snacks, and beverage assortment. Scheduled stops on the Turbotrain route include New Haven and New London, Connecticut as well as Providence, Rhode Island.

Montrealer/Washingtonian

Modern rail service between Washington/New York and Montreal is now a reality once again, thanks to Amtrak. Here is an attractive, comfortable train that connects two great North American cities and puts travelers within easy and comfortable reach of New York's tourist attractions, the cosmopolitan atmosphere of Montreal and the winter-summer wonders of the Laurentians. Daily through service between Washington, D.C. and Montreal, Canada via New York, Springfield and Montpelier Jct. Excellent overnight service from key East Coast cities to resort areas of Vermont and New Hampshire. Restful, reclining coach seats. Choice of private accommodations. Spacious lounge for socializing. In the diner, new menus at attractively low prices, and for the long-weekend "swing" set, Le Pub car for entertainment and fun.

GREAT WESTERN TRAINS

Amtrak's newly refurbished trains are especially fine for viewing the majestic scenery in the western part of America. On the pages that follow there is a brief description of Amtrak's principal train service in the West. If you are planning a Western trip, and would like more information about these trains, we suggest you ask for a copy of the fully illustrated brochure "Great Amtrak Trains in the West."

Super Chief

There's no finer way to travel between Chicago and Los Angeles. Roomy high-level leg-rest coaches, restful sleeping accommodations and tempting food services offer the most fun in travel at popular prices. A trip through the Golden West rolls through a legendary land of soaring mountains, ranchland, many-colored deserts, spectacular canyons, lovely lakes and green forests. An experience of a lifetime!

San Francisco Zephyr

One of the most modern and efficient passenger trains in North America. Whether you stay aboard for the entire journey, or make a shorter trip, perhaps between San Francisco and Cheyenne, or from Chicago to Denver or Ogden, Utah, you'll always be welcome in Amtrak's comfortable reclining coaches, attractive dining car and hospitable dome lounge.

North Coast Hiawatha/Empire Builder

Traveling between Chicago and Seattle, these luxurious Amtrak trains, famous for their dome coaches and lounges, give you a ground-level view of the green forests and ranchlands of the Northwest. The North Coast Hiawatha crosses North Dakota and Montana on a more southerly route while the Empire Builder travels across the extreme northern tier of the country. You'll find snacks and meal service at moderate prices.

Sunset Limited

The Sunset Route from New Orleans to Los Angeles follows the southernmost part of the United States and passes through exotic Louisiana, historic Texas and New Mexico, sunny Arizona and California. Leg-rest coaches provide "stretch out" comfort whatever distance you travel. Sleeping accommodations are also available for the businessman or vacationer making the overnight trip between key destinations.

Texas Chief

On board the Texas Chief, between Chicago and Houston, serving Kansas City, Oklahoma City and Fort Worth, you'll enjoy its many features and services — as well as points of interest along the way. The lounge car is a wonderful place to relax, chat and enjoy the magnificent view of oil wells, skyscrapers, and open prairies. You will also enjoy the low-cost snacks and refreshment service. Leg-rest coaches feature comfortable deep-cushioned seating, and sleeping accommodations are available for the traveler making an overnight trip.

Inter-American

This newest Amtrak service operates three times weekly between Fort Worth and Laredo, with connecting limousine to nearby Nuevo Laredo in Mexico.

The Inter-American makes stops at McGregor, Temple, Austin, San Marcos and San Antonio.

The atmosphere is congenial. And your coach ticket offers you deep-cushioned relaxation, the opportunity to stroll about or purchase tasty meals, snacks and refreshing beverages at low Amtrak prices.

Panama Limited

Here is the most convenient and pleasant way for the economy-minded traveler making his way between Chicago and New Orleans via central Illinois, Memphis and Jackson.

Coach seats are deep and comfortable, and there's plenty of space to get up and move around when you feel the need of company or a change of scene. Private accommodations are also available. Part of the pleasure in traveling this train is the diner-lounge where delicious meals are served, and snacks and beverages can also be purchased at moderate prices.

- A. Panoramic view from Hi-level dome lounge.
- B. Amtrak hostess makes trip more pleasant.
- C. And so to bed, to wake refreshed.

WEST COAST TRAINS

San Diegan

The route of the San Diegan takes you between Los Angeles and San Diego via such nationally famous attractions as Disneyland, Del Mar Racetrack, La Jolla beach, and many other beautiful Pacific beaches.

No reservations are needed for your comfortable coach seat, and the snack bars are open during the entire trip with food and beverages at low, sensible prices.

Coast Starlight — Daylight

The Coast Daylight operates daily between Oakland/San Francisco, and Los Angeles, with connections to San Diego. The Coast Starlight — Daylight covers the entire route between Seattle and Los Angeles. Here the views of the Pacific, as well as the mountains, are no less than breathtaking.

Both trains have attractive interiors with bright new colors and spacious comfortable seating in coach and first class. Dining service and snack service offer new, improved menus at a moderate price.

The Pacific International

The new Pacific International is the connecting link between two beautiful neighboring cities: Seattle, Washington and Vancouver, British Columbia.

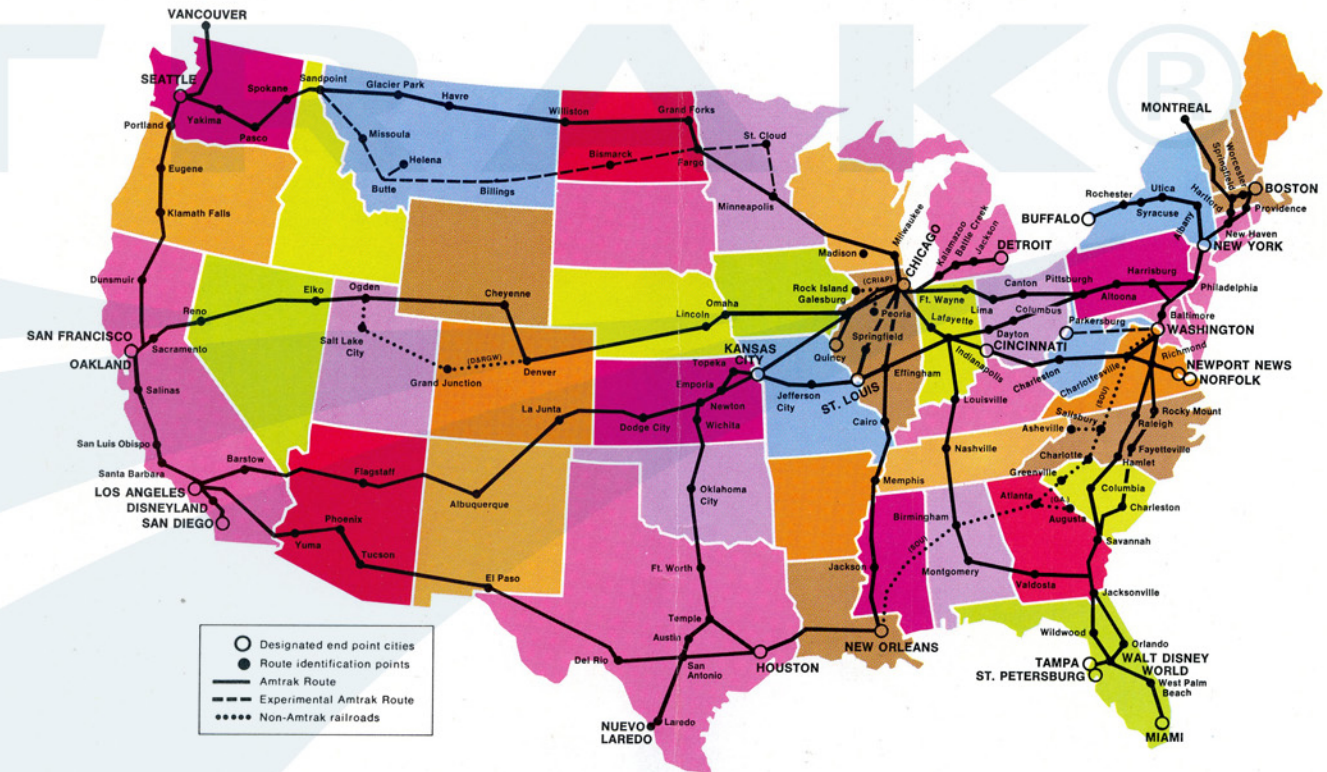

There is a dome coach, with wide panoramic windows, and food and beverages are available at reasonable prices.

- A. There's a congenial atmosphere aboard the San Diegan.
B. Comfortable private bedroom on Coast Starlight.

AMTRAK RAIL NETWORK

Your Amtrak map (above) can help you plan your travels in the intercity rail network. Amtrak now has more than 200 daily trains serving 340 locations. The Amtrak rail network is designed to provide swift, dependable service between major metropolitan centers and deliver you from center city to center city in a relaxed, rested frame of mind. It serves the business traveler and the vacationer in a way that is reassuring to the older traveler — and a revelation to younger people just learning about the fun of traveling by rail.
