*Train schedules are subject to change. Please call and reconfirm your time of departure at least one day prior to travel. Passengers wishing to check their baggage must do so at least 1/2 hour prior to departure. Baggage may be claimed at destination within 1/2 hour of arrival.

To Our Metroliner Service Passengers

Metroliner Service features the following:

- Limited stops
- Reserved seating in both coach and club cars
- Faster schedules than regular service trains
- Hot meal service for club car passengers
- "Metrophone" for priority reservations service
- Ticket delivery by messenger in New York City and metropolitan Washington, DC
- Convenient departures throughout the business day

If your Metroliner service train, serving points between New York City and Washington, D.C., arrives at your destination station at least thirty minutes late, you are entitled to a refund of the difference between Metroliner and regular fares. You may submit your original Metroliner Passenger Receipt to your Metroliner destination station for refund processing. Refund requests submitted within seven days of travel may be authorized at the station, depending upon the form of payment for your tickets. If this is not convenient, you may send your original ticket receipt(s) with your name, address, train number and travel date to: Metroliner Refunds, Office of Customer Relations, P.O. Box 2709, Washington, D.C. 20013. Amtrak will also refund normal postage costs.

We encourage you to give us the benefit of your comments or suggestions on Amtrak service. Please send your correspondence to:

Amtrak information and reservation numbers in cities not listed above can be found in the "Yellow Pages of your local telephone directory under "Railroads."

Cancellation and Refund of Tickets

If your plans change, please call the Amtrak reservation number or your travel agent to cancel your reservation. We would like to make the space released by your call available to other Amtrak travelers, particularly during peak travel times.

Failure to board a train at the original point specified in your ticket without giving Amtrak advance notice of a change in your travel plans may result in cancellation of the reservation you hold for the remaining portion of your trip.

Conditions for Refunds

Amtrak tickets are redeemed in accordance with rules published in the All-America Train Fares Tariff which is available at all ticket offices for public inspection. To obtain refunds at stations for tickets purchased by check, please supply a copy of both sides of the cancelled check.
