TRAVEL INFORMATION

BAGGAGE CHECK-IN

Passengers desiring checked baggage service should check in at least 45 minutes before train departure.

Amtrak cannot accept liability for damage caused by prohibited articles. Normal wearing apparel, toilet articles and similar items necessary and appropriate for a passenger's journey will be accepted as checked baggage. A listing of prohibited articles is available at Amtrak Baggage Counters and in the Amtrak National Train Timetables.

Not all trains or stations offer checked baggage service. Please check with Amtrak or your travel agent to determine where checked baggage service is offered.

PERSONAL CHECKS

Amtrak accepts personal checks of $25.00 or more presented with a valid photo ID and a major credit card as listed below. Checks must also be for the amount of purchase, contain a current address (P.O. Boxes not acceptable) and preprinted name.

CREDIT CARDS

Amtrak accepts Air Travel Card (ATC), American Express, Carte Blanche, Diners Club, Japan Credit Bureau (JCB), MasterCard and Visa. These cards (except JCB) are also accepted on board.

WE INVITE YOUR COMMENTS

We encourage you to give us the benefit of any comments, compliments, or suggestions you may have regarding Amtrak service. Send comments to Office of Customer Relations, Amtrak, 400 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001. (Note: Include your original ticket receipt).

LOST, STOLEN OR DESTROYED TICKETS

Amtrak is not liable for lost, stolen or destroyed tickets. Refunds will not be authorized.

About Your Amtrak Tickets ...

SPECIAL FARES

All tickets issued at a reduced fare, for example, special one-way or round-trip excursion fares, contain certain restrictions which may apply. These restrictions limit travel to certain dates, time of departure or duration of stay. Special fare tickets if partially used may be subject to limited refund value.

Your travel agent or Amtrak can advise you regarding specific conditions applicable to your ticket or any reduced fares offered.

IF YOUR PLANS CHANGE:

FOR PASSENGERS TRAVELING ON RESERVED TRAINS

Tickets MUST be reissued if reservations are changed. An additional fare may be required if your revised itinerary no longer qualifies for the fare originally paid.

FOR PASSENGERS TRAVELING ON UNRESERVED TRAINS

Your ticket may be used on any unreserved train serving the points shown on your ticket, provided travel on that train and date qualifies for the fare originally paid. If you have questions about your unreserved ticket, please contact Amtrak or your travel agent.

FOR PASSENGERS HOLDING OPEN TICKETS

If you have purchased an "open" ticket for any segment of your itinerary, for which reservations are required, please be sure to make reservations and have ticket(s) reissued prior to your travel. Additional collection may be required if a fare change has taken place. Be sure to check with your travel agent or Amtrak regarding blackout dates or other conditions applying to the fare paid. Open tickets cannot be issued on All Aboard America Fares or on certain other discount fares.

CANCELLATION

If you need to cancel your reservation, please do so as early as possible. Reservations not cancelled at least 30 minutes prior to departure (1 hour prior to departure for Auto Train service), or which were not cancelled, will be subject to a penalty charge when tickets are presented for refund.

REFUNDS

Most refunds can be handled at Amtrak ticket offices but exceptions do exist; consult Amtrak. Refunds of partially used special fare or excursion fare tickets may be limited. Tickets purchased at a travel agency must be returned to the agency; however, if a refund is required because of a service disruption or an involuntary downgrade of sleeping, club or custom class accommodations, Amtrak will process tickets issued by travel agencies. Amtrak will gladly refund your tickets through the mail. Please send original tickets (photocopies not acceptable) to:
